

I do NOT feel it should be up to the NAB to control What I hear on Satellite radio. This is a service which I pay for! The FCC needs to support XM satellite Radio. The other broadcasters need to do what everyone else in the real world does. Be competitve to stay alive, not dictate away their competition.